

Homes for Haringey

Special Grants

Recognised Residents' Associations across the borough have been given special grants for projects to benefit the community.

These grants were funded by Homes for Haringey and their constructor partners.

A list of the Residents' Associations receiving the grants, and how they intend to use them to benefit their local communities is below.

John Rowan & Partners
Construction Consultants

in partnership with

Haringey Council

RIDGE

RLB | Rider Levett Bucknall

Ashdowne Court Residents' Association

Planting the outdoor area and involving as many as residents as possible.

Bedale House Tenants' Association

Buying garden furniture and plants, including a pop-up gazebo with side panels.

Broadwater Farm Residents' Association

Buying furniture and a new carpet for their meeting room.

Campbell Court Tenants' Association

Buying a Nintendo Wii and games for older residents to keep fit.

Carlton Lodge Residents' Association

Buying plants for their garden.

Chestnut Area Residents' Association

Holding a community street party – from Chestnut Road police station to Park View Road.

Cranley Dene Residents' Association

Buying garden furniture and plants.

Edgecot Grove Residents' Association

Buying furniture for the meeting room.

Ermine Road Estate Residents' Association

Renting a hall and holding a social event.

Ferry Lane Action Group

Funding towards a theatre group for young people on the estate.

Sir Frederick Messer Residents' Association

Holding a Residents' Awareness Day – jointly with Tiverton and Plevna Residents' Associations. To provide information on health and other matters and to promote community spirit.

Helston Court Residents' Association

A trip to Kew Gardens for all residents.

HTBG Residents' Association

Buying a bird stand/bird bath and feeders and small shrubs in Tenterden Road.

Mildura Court Residents' Association

Planting and landscaping at the back of the block.

Milton, Willow and West Green Residents' Association

Hiring a trainer for the elderly fitness club.

Pagin House Residents' Association

Holding a consultation event on plans to improve the communal garden.

Partridge Way Residents' Association

Finsbury House Garden Club – garden shed and compost.

Plevna Residents' Association

Taking the children of Plevna Crescent to a theatre show.

Protheroe House Residents' Association

Summer coach outing for sheltered housing residents.

Sandlings Residents' Association

Buying arts and crafts material for young people.

Sophia House Residents' Association

Theatre trip coach outing.

Stokely Court Residents' Association

Garden Benches

The Crescent Residents' Association

Outing for residents

Tiverton Residents' Association

Holding a Residents' Awareness Day – jointly with Frederick Messer and Plevna Residents' Associations. To provide information on health and other matters and promote community spirit.